What is VYNet?

Voluntary Youth Network is an organisation bringing together those working with young people in the Borough of Blackburn with Darwen.

"Bringing together those working with young people"

What does VYNet do?

Establishes partnerships with those involved in supporting work with young people in both the voluntary and statutory sectors within the Borough of Blackburn with Darwen.

Meets the needs and aspirations of young people by strengthening and supporting the work of our members.

Acts as an advocate representing the interests of the young people and those working with them.

Provides a forum to discuss the issues and needs relating to young people through sharing good practice.

Assists the development and effectiveness of organisations in the delivery of quality youth work.

Raises the profile of young people and the issues affecting them.

Creates a positive image of youth work in the Borough.

Offers access to information, advice and guidance, training opportunities, resources and other expertise, including necessary policies and procedures relevant to quality youth work.

Who can join?

Voluntary groups who make provision for young people aged 11 to 25 in the Borough of Blackburn with Darwen.

Those working with young people to promote their personal growth and development.
